Service Impact

Collegiate OPA sisters collectively recorded 18,756 hours of service in 2020, even in the midst of the Covid-19 pandemic.

In a typical academic year, our collegiate members collectively log more than 50,000 service hours. If valued at $15/hour, that is an impact of $750,000 across the communities we serve during a typical year.

OMEGA PHI ALPHA FOUNDATION

What does the Omega Phi Alpha Foundation support?

The Foundation's purpose is to support the mission of Omega Phi Alpha.

- Programming to develop our sisters into successful leaders (in their chapters and careers). The Foundation plans to underwrite virtual programming modules as well as content and speakers for District Summits and Convention.
- Service project grants at the chapter level, to enable our chapters to think creatively about community needs and make an impact

Our Core Values

Promote a culture of SERVICE.

- University Community - recognizing needs and efforts of university, faculty, staff, fellow students
- Community at Large - striving to make a positive and meaningful impact in their community
- Members of the Sorority - serve actives and alumni through uplifting activities and sincere, steadfast support
- Nations of the World - issues that impact humanity across the globe
- Mental Health - psychological and emotional well-being)
- President's Project - focused area of service designated annually by the national president

Develop the LEADERSHIP potential of our members.

fostering leadership among all members of the organization so they are prepared to serve in leadership roles throughout life

Embrace the DIVERSITY of our members through a spirit of INCLUSION.

create an accessible and welcoming space for people of all races, ethnicities, genders, gender identities and expressions, sexual orientations, physical abilities and appearances, religions and other identities

Foster a strong bond of SISTERHOOD.

an organization bonded in friendship through a deep focus and commitment to service; foster trust, respect, love and support in relationships with our sisters long-standing traditions that create, cultivate, and sustain lifelong bonds among all members regardless of chapter affiliation or location.

Celebrate lifelong fellowship through TRADITION.

EDUCATION is the foundation that equips us to act on our values.

as lifelong learners, we strive to understand the challenges and needs around us and actively make a positive difference
